The light

All my life I have struggled.

But I only wanted to be snuggled.

Than I found my love in you.

Believe me, that's true.

My issue is after all there.

The sadness I am feeling is everywhere.

I fight against demons inside my head.

Than I remember what you said.

“Move forward and don't look back.

You have to believe your future isn't black.

Think of all the goodness around you.

Than you will see it too.”

Thank you for being there for me.

With you on my side I may be free.
