"Existentialism"

This philosophical thinking begins with a living human individual,
you and me :),
and freedom is primary virtue,
for me and you.

Haiku &Phi; *

The secret door, see
In our part of the world
The shadows of hope

I wanna to hear your "existential attitude", yes&hellip;.

"&hellip; are you or your society solely responsible for giving MEANING to life and living it passionately and sincerely &hellip;?"

Haiku &Phi; * *

White stillness opens
There is space in it, mystic Slowly transmuted

Are you living as a "single individual",
right now?
O., me myself become an quite misty mystery,
how can you and me understand this&hellip;?

Haiku &Phi; * * *

Send me a letter
I must travel very soon
Unwritten pages

Do you know this?
Somewhere in the end of summer,
beyond the brown rim of the near forest,
a few trees are waiting for many promises,
-rhetoric is impossible here.

Haiku &Phi; * * * * :)

Up, out of the sleep

Open your eyes, feel life now

Flowers, here we land

Angst - fear &ndash; anxiety,

an intense feeling of apprehension, inner turmoil,

hm.. don't worry&hellip;

and don't be sorry&hellip;

because friendship, compassion and love,

can embrace you,

from the ground to the above.

Now is time for a cup of tea&hellip; :)
