Förvirrad, konstig text om hur mina tankar snurrar just nu..

Antagligen inte särskilt begriplig...

Is the love or the distance going last forever...?

Even though the distance would make our love grow stronger

-Thats probably right-

It hurts so bad,
Im not sure I can take it any longer

Well, it is right, my love is stronger
But that just makes the distance even longer

We'll stick together
We were ment to be, supposed to be

-But not all things that's ment to be lasts forever-

Are we going to last, my love?
Or will the distance tear us apart?

My everything,
tell me it's gonna last.

Last forever.....
