Voices

Days seems harder to get through
Each day my feelings for you grows much bigger
The voices in my head is telling me to let go
But they're not me
They don't know what I want
What I can do
They're letting me think horrible thoughts
But I don't listen
They just want to hurt me
Make me feel pain
Make me listen to them
I won't
I will fight through these voices, if you want me
I will do whatever it takes to kill them
Make them go away

As long as I have you, it will be easy
