Judgement day

I had my youth so bright and clear all the laughs and deepest fear now the days turned so old and grey all I do is sit and prey judgement day, oh judgement day we all be waiting for judgement day Jesus will save us all

and Satan will torch your soul

Golden days and rainy nights pussy joy and great delights and love and hate goes side by side everyday, but now I fear

Jesus will save us all
