My hero

am

I take your hand and look into your eyes
I see a heart made of gold
You see you are a hero to me

My Hero came into my life unexpectedly

I'm pleased you did You make each day the greatest Each laugh the longest Each tear the saddest

And my life, richer

Without even knowing it you were slowly taking place for yourself in my heart and mind and everything took a turn for the better your blue eyes

Your soft hands
the way you smoke a cigarette

The compassion you confirm all became a part of my life.
As you open yourself to me
I discovered more and more loveliness

It's so simple to feel close to you.
I can't say to you how good that makes me feel.

When you take my hand and look into my eyes

I surely hope you can believe and consider my love

You see you are a Hero to me
