this world ain't ready for me, tell me honey how could you be?

Zoliya - Let Me Come

[Verse One]

lick it lick it, real sweet, press the finger in it real deep mix finger tips with slidin' hips bunny kisses, and ladies like this give her the sweet thing jump in to my ride, it's a wild thing in the night where the hips swing and to twelve a clock when the bell ring we don't waitin', so let me demonstrate things it's easier then you thought it be hard don't make this a charter thing we are youths, much more smart beings could do it quick in's, be smart with me babe it's even more badd then evil art makes and i could go darker then your hole ends, i could access your deep dark friend so baby be fly with it, just scream my name with no ends;)

[Chorus]

so baby let me come in, and let me bombin' i will proove all thoughts were not wrong with me i can make all dreams, wet and better then it's real baby just let me come in, and let me show things

this world ain't ready for me, tell me honey how could you be?

[Verse Two]

i can be good with them lies and quick to spit them cute lines just to get inside babe, get a night life and catch it from my view, it's all nice all for the good feeling, feel it twice a night even more, if she let me dive in i want quit our glide in, so come and i will make you feel soo home it's a rome on distance, a romance with some one who's not italian this one, make it even more precious by diamonds i be blessed, like love i am priceless like deep atlantics, and swim into warm hugs deep lenght is the one, baby let me come and dip the bomb, let a thug come..

[Chorus]

i will proove all thoughts were not wrong with me
i can make all dreams, wet and better then it's real
baby just let me come in, and let me show things

this world ain't ready for me, tell me honey how could you be?
