My love for u.

You are my sunshine, and the stars above.

Christmas morning, my beautiful white dove.

You are the garden of Eden, and the Northern Lights.

A blessing from above, like the moon in the night.

Sometimes I feel lonely, all alone in the dark,

But when I think of you, I feel love in my heart.

You are my everything, my A and O,

With out you I got noting, so this is to you.
