Till dig. Och mig.

Something's missing

You and me

We had our time

It was such a good time

But it was a long time ago

And now it's over

I think we grew apart

Or was it just me?

Love can be so frightening

But yet so sweet

Love is easy

But hurtful and sad

Love is great

But painful and bad

Love is hard

But warm and tender

We used to be good

We used to be perfect

But something's missing

And I feel that it has letting me down

I still dream of it

Still want to feel it

But I know it could be such a bad thing

And at the same time

It would be so beautiful

You and me

Used to be

But now we're apart

There's no us

There's no we

But there's still you

And there's still me

I think we grew apart

Or was it just me?

Love can be so frightening
But yet so sweet

Love is easy
But hurtful and sad
Love is great
But painful and bad
Love is hard
But warm and tender

We used to be good
We used to be perfect
But something's missing
And I feel that it has letting me down
I still dream of it
Still want to feel it
But I know it could be such a bad thing
And at the same time
It would be so beautiful

Times are changing
And so are we
Even though there's no we
There will always be
You and me
