The Glastonbury bells

Just for you
the church bells rang and your days were counted like hours caught in sand

Afterwards I thought about the people who were there to remember when you left to the distant dreamland

Was it out of pity they sang
or of sorrow because they were the ones left behind

And I thought to myself

I don't want another Sunday
