"If you want"

So I see
you standing there

can it be a miracle?
can it be a fair?

Chance to find
what's here

let's get closer still see what's beneath the till though I've been hurt

many times before
I trust

I've found
in you

something kind
gentle and wild

would you mind
to see

us together in a cold
or hot weather

the feeling I have
when I see you

standing still

for a moment
in shrill understanding that if you want me

I'm yours

could it be so rare
what we've found

could you say to me

"Let it, let it be..."

I know your words
wouldn't care
if I was there...

to see you
standing here
is more than I can bear

I just need
to say

for you

"If you want me...
I'm yours"

Let us walk
together now
you know

the feeling I have
when I see you

walking
here

just a stroll

could be
what we need
for now
