To my guardian angel.

Jag skulle göra vad som helst, för att få se dig igen.

You barley slipping into my mind

Back again

To the place you know oh so well

Behind my eyelids you brush my hair

And take me down

To the gardens of Eden

And we're naked again

And you're glowing of beauty

Fills my eyes with tears, remembering you like this

The morning light comes and you run again

A dream of what should have been

I miss you more than I love the sun

So, no I can't wait

It was never too late

I will love you forever
