Wish you could be my Sunset

I see a sunset in the horizon, It looks so warm and cozy

Heavenly and beautiful it makes my day, the last thing I see before I fall asleep

It fills me with a warm feeling that someone is looking at me and wishing me my best

I'm hoping that it's you, but I don't know

You are a sunset in my eyes and I get a feeling that makes me sure I'm in love, since it's everytime I'm with you I get that feeling

I wish you could be my sunset.....
