Do you know

I hate the girl there in the mirror,
She looks so ugly and fat,
She is crying every night, she really hates that

She is struggling with her weight and her dream,
She wants more than ever to become smaller,
and maybe some centimeters taller.
But she can't, the doctors will stop her

Why can't anyone understand what she wants?
No one understands to be slimmer and lose weight, is her biggest dreams

She has panic, she cries and screams,
And do you know that this girl is actually me?
