Am I too late?

Hopmix av rader ur lite favoritlåtar + egna ord

Apologize

And once again, I cannot sleep so I walk out the door and out to the streets remembering all

The rights that I've done wrong

It hurts so bad I cannot breath I'm here wating for the end to come cause I have just found

The perfect end

I guess I'm loosing what I don't deserve and I figure I won't find my place in the diary because maybe

Something's just about to break

I'm falling of the edge today yeah I'm not superhuman just another idiot that clearly

Don't know what's worth fighting for Well I've taken my beating and there was a time I'd let you know what's really going on below but

I've been cold and lost in desperation

Did I have to fall and loose it all my sweetest friend is the message getting through or is time running out

Is it too late to apologize?
