Stars 2

In a restaurant by the sea, someone is serving seafood to the tourists, a darkhaired girl. She is wearing a dress and black shoes. Her hair is black and curly.

She's waitressing people, and they're smiling at her, and the men flirt away, for 'she is stunning. She lives in the Heights, S. F and she smokes incense and smokes weed, while her baby kicks in her stomach. She's in love with her ex and he gives her money but does not show up. Everyday she waits tables and gives food to pigeons. Everyday she wakes up and looks out at the hippies in the Heights and at the people that walk past.
