Kiss the sun good bye

You always shine so bright it hurts my eyes. You make my skin glitter, but it hurts. Every time i step in to your light from the dark, it hurts.

Are you here to burn me every time we meet?

Do you do it because you are good, and i am evil?

Or do you only like to tease?

I want ot say good bye to you, but i can't. I like the burning too much.
