Could have, Should have, Would have...

I could, I should,
I said I would,
but in the end
did not.

I might have done
if I'd been well
and hadn't
lost the plot.

The things
I tell you now
I ought to have already said.

But even though
I could and should I didn't
I just fled.

I could, I should,
I said I would,
but didn't -
as you do.

I ought to have tried harder
might have changed my life for you.

I can and shall,
I say I will,
but if I don't,
somehow,

I could, I should
and said I would,
I tried to make you proud.

I might have done
things differently,
ought to have had a go.

But somehow
out of can came can't and out of should just no!

I could, I should,
I said I would
but in the end
did not.

I might have done
if I'd been well
and hadn't
given up!
