Runaway - I run to you

<h2 id="poetryhead"></h2>

World of mine I take my time but I really in disguise the time I spent . . .

in my darkest moments
tired of being lonely

so I run
and I run
I run to you

I couldn't find
my map was closed
and dark was the night

so I run
and I run
I run to you

Who am I
is there anything
wrong with me

I wonder

World of mine
I take my time

and I run . . .
over the hills
and far away

until I found the way
to your heart
but I couldn't find the key

I stop running and there you was

You tried to stop my runaway the key was simple, take it easy don't runaway from me . . . she said

I have stopped running and I always look over my shoulder

no more runaway
I stay with booth feet
on the ground
