Who are you there

Who are you in real life

Who are you here

Divide by zero

but 1+1 in real life

Raise hands to a digital sky

Night out at cyberia

Twilight patterns, discern two

Addicted to a signal of loneliness

but you can't live with it and you can't live without it

Doubleplus ungood

Tell me who you are, who you were in a transparent scene of opacity

Where are you now, in a silent world

Screaming white noise on dead channels

Death on the snow fields in footprints made from steel

A degree to which light is not allowed

Trespass to travel through

Be there, here, exist as a shadow

Mark your name in the credits

Ask tomorrow, and you weren't even there

One line is missing

Encrypted on sanity's level

Give your soul to corporations

A wordplay out of nothing

A medium of communication

heard on a global scale

Don't confuse it with a real world

You are still me

Not men disguised as dogs
but wolves disguised as men
