Together we will shine forever

You and me,
are meant to be,
for infinity
All eternity
Together,
we will live forever

The whole world,
in our bare hands
We can make trees
out of ashes
And love out of dust

Even this,
we feel so hollow,
and just take another pill to swallow

But I wish nothing
but the best for us
Nothing else
than love for us

No pain, no rain Just sunshine
together
we will shine forever
