vänskap, underbara underbara vän

underbara känsla

livet är inte alltid lätt

men jag är här

you, thats where I wanna be

and the world may come crushing down upon us hell may start

people may want to destroy us

take us down

below what we are

below what we've become

but that's how it always has been

and through it all

I will be there

standing beside you

watching your back

and if you let me

I will hold your hand

walking with you through the valley of death if that's where this road goes

but I'll be here

because I can't imagine anywhere else to be

then with you

beside you

feeling you

hearing you

breathing you

you
