I wish we could back in time

I wish I could do it all over again

I would have stayed quiet

I wouldn't had sad anything.

I never wanted to see you cry

I wanted your smile

I wanted your laugh.

I wish I could feel your happiness

Cause mine is all gone.

You were my light

But you turned into darkness.

I thought I could fly

But I crashed into the ground.

Save me, cause I can not go on by myself.
