Figuring it out

a careful beat

a racing mind

not lost

but still left to be found

answers don't come easy

a million thoughts running maybe somehow I'll figure it out tread carefully forth

hide behind that rock

take a peek

sometimes epiphanies aren't instantaneous

sometimes they're slow

dragging on and one day obvious

one day clear

so carefully walk towards the future

one day you will know

the most obvious thing

careful
