just a lyric written by me

WHAT DEMON I AM

you my angel that shines with your absence i the demon that smells death from my face

visions of past memories
keeps me up at night
bad dreams from another reality blinding my every sight to light you my saviour that embrace with safety i the destroyer wrecks everything beyond insanity

me, myself, I another form or word for what demon i am needs you my angel in this night before i've paralyzed my senses of ever feel the blessing from your hand i have destroyed the purpose of what was to be i have destroyed the meaning of life for me

i have destroyed the purpose of what was to be
