Lyrik på engelska.

Fresh violet flowers.

When people change, they leave marks, memories of who they used to be and why we used to love them for who they were.

And no matter how many times you remind them of what we had was so good, they get another perspective of it as they found a way to live without you.

Moving on, is a frequently used expression just like the words "I love you" and "good bye", but how can we be so sure that, what we're letting go of is the right thing to do?

Back in the day when you bought a toy, and it ended up breaking, you decided to fix it. Nowadays people don't know that sometimes, some things are worth fixing while they're still there.

And that's why we won't grow old, but if you pass away, I'll visit your grave everyday, with fresh violet flowers.
