Dennie

When I saw you the first time I knew I was hooked.
I was dazzled by your eyes and your cute smile.

You stole my heart and I don't ever want it back.
For it is yours to keep, as long as you want.

Sometimes it feels like we are the same person.
We are so alike in many ways.

Everything is so easy with you.
With you, I can not think, just feel.

And this feeling I have when I'm with you.
That feeling is unbeatable!

You have touched me in many ways.
But mostly in my heart.

You are the most beautiful person I ever met.
Both on the inside and on the outside.

I love you and I will do anything for you.

You have locked up my scarred heart
And then locked it again with your's.
This time I throw away the key.

Because I want you now and forever.

If I could, I would take down a star
Then I would put it next to you
Because then the star could light your way
When you are lost
And when I'm not there to guide you the right direction.
