

Gallow Hights

They're gonna hang me in the morning,
Before the night is done.
They're gonna hang me in the morning,
And I'll never see the sun.

When I walk these steps so lonely,
Up to the gallow hights.
And when I feel the snare around my neck,
I know it is the end.
I know it is the end

As the life I lived gives away,
My dreams they're still alive.
They where always about you,
But I'll never se them true.
As the life I lived gives away.

I now spot you in the crowd,
Silent screams in your eyes.
A heart soon to be broken,
you where the love of my life.

The rain flowing through your hair,
Your blue eyes glistening.
I just want to see you smile,
Before my time runs out.
Before my time runs out.

As the life I lived gives away,
My dreams they're still alive.
They where always about you,
But I'll never see them true.
As the life I lived gives a way.

If I could ask for one last wish,
And see that it came true.
If I could ask for one last wish,
I would wish to be with you.

I want to lay there in the morning,
Before the night is done.
I wanna see the sun risin'
Forever by your side.
