I Love You!

You are fed with the lie
that you are not enough.

But nothing is missing in you.

See yourself in the mirror and realize that they are lying.

You are just like you are supposed to be.

You're part of something big,
a magnificent creation.

It does not matter what you have done,
there is only forgiveness.

As a brother, I love you you are me and I am we.

Love yourself by loving me
and you love yourself free.
