I am Ana

I am Ana

I am your only friend

We can do it all if we just stay together

Perfection is before us

all you have to do is to put the fork and knife down

We can do it together

I am Ana

I am your worst enemy

I will starve you of your dreams

And there is nothing you can do

You are already in my total control

I am Ana

I am everything you have all you ever be

I am you
