

Take Care

Though yesterday may be important and invaluable when it comes to defining who you are tomorrow is where your true path to happiness lies.

It's uncharted territory, that's true , but it's yours to mold and shape as you wish.

Now is the time to define who you are,
to reach for the stars and create your fortune, wether that lies in your heart, your soul,
or in earthly pleasures.

You are unique,
in this world there is no one like you and that is the beauty about you.

You don't have to be like somebody else to shine.

So let go of your fears and walk with your head held high.

Know that if you follow your heart and believe in yourself you can't go wrong.

You may have made mistakes in the past, but yesterday don't matter.

It's what you do with the rest of your tomorrows that count.

So keep going,
walk with your head held high and don't forget; Take care.
