Don't fade away

I watch you fade away on your body I could count every single bone

There is nothing I can do about it to each his own

But I'm terrified of losing you that's why I won't let go

I can't survive losing you too not being able to recognize you hurts me the most

Each time I see you I'm not even sure if it's really you or just your ghost

You have become someone I don't know anymore it is all so terribly strange

Did you lose more weight than you were asking for your body became something you decided to derange

Tell me if there's something I can do I'll do anything please don't stop breathing

Keep up being strong and I'll be there with you all along

I promise I'll be there with you all along
