"Existentialism"

This philosophical thinking begins with a living human individual,
you and me :),
and freedom is primary virtue,
for me and you.

Haiku Φ *

The secret door, see
In our part of the world
The shadows of hope

I wanna to hear your "existential attitude", yes….

"… are you or your society solely responsible for giving MEANING to life and living it passionately and sincerely …?"

Haiku Φ * *

White stillness opens
There is space in it, mystic Slowly transmuted

Are you living as a "single individual", right now?
O., me myself become an quite misty mystery,
how can you and me understand this…?

Haiku Φ * * *

Send me a letter
I must travel very soon
Unwritten pages

Do you know this?
Somewhere in the end of summer,
beyond the brown rim of the near forest,
a few trees are waiting for many promises,
-rhetoric is impossible here.

Haiku Φ * * * * :)

Up, out of the sleep

Open your eyes, feel life now

Flowers, here we land

Angst - fear – anxiety,

an intense feeling of apprehension, inner turmoil,

hm.. don't worry…

and don't be sorry…

because friendship, compassion and love,

can embrace you,

from the ground to the above.

Now is time for a cup of tea… :)
