No more tigers

don't overstay your welcome 4 minutes or less say it all, if you can, with a picture with some borrowed ideas & some moods that you stole it's still new if you work on the mixture shift the focus again talk of some long-lost friend there's a lot to be said about the weather how the rain keeps on pouring your hometown is boring or abandon your words altogether

no more kings
time will take care of everything no messiahs
no clipped wings
you have said all you needed to win don't name names, take the blame make it seem like you knew what you wanted to say when you started take a painless farewell poke some fun at yourself it won't hurt to be seen as lighthearted

no new schemes
in a year you can distance yourself from your dreams
no messiahs

new regimes

you'll forget how you felt when you heard the world scream
