medal of honor

i really thought a knight would be able to treat a sick girl right but know i understand this is my own battle
... i have to fight !
really thought a knight would stand up for my human rights the army might give him a medal of honor but they didn't give him lesson in manner how to treat a sick girl that battle a long fight who only heading toward the light
i think it makes you a coward and not very strong because we both know you treated this girl wrong ...
