England

I miss England .

I miss everyone

that made me fell

in love in this country

a home in a kingdom .

I miss you how made me fall and i miss that you don't miss me at all .

I miss england so hard my heart breaking .

and that not been moving on i cant fake it

I miss everybody cause i don't discriminate

I am a lover and i do not hate .

i miss england

every little inch of it

every little corner of it

I miss england

so hard

that i want send it a postcard

i miss england

the atmosphere and noise

mostly of all

i kinda miss the boys
