If you could

If you could talk to your younger self what would you say?

Would you laugh would you cry dislike the same?

Love as you do or run away?

If you

If you just could

If you could talk to her

If you could talk to him

What would change

Yeah, what would change

If you could talk to your younger self what would you say?

Scream demon or demons run away?

Who would actually be saved?

If you

If you had that chance

If you could talk to her

If you could talk to him

One simple word

One simple act

What would she need

What would he need

What would you need

If you could talk to your younger self what would you say?
