(Dope head) popular artists

I spit on the floor of the WordPress gallery spin around like a bat that hit a glass door brake my head like tasteless prose choke on modern art galleries in hipster facilities you've gotta be misunderstood to be good said every unintelligent colorist ever and wagged their little indie tail to the piano tune at the funeral of doped up originality the needle still hanging from their arm
