Preface for your friends of poetry-text poetry.

More than one friend here at poeter.se goes into protest quit writing, I got on track to knowledge, I have also said a thousand times when discovered in the next moment that you write just for yourself and develop every day to even large dictators, while others incubate a few words about relationships others glide and predict hard-to-digest topic that our unworthy time offers.

As a poet you are not here for the others in the crowd pleasing and all the hopes do not concern me out of the unsatisfied people who by the show plant have not the same interest on this literary side as logotype and opportunities presented.

Criticism and comments do not belong to the poetic literary, but we had to be dragged into the textual controversial world, a world that we would rather not notice and sleep on an ear embarrassed that we are our future generation of best models, type FB fajt , sometimes you have a hit!

but this is not the case if the morality does not apply:

(Never forget true friends in times of storms, when they helped you day and night, until sunset until the dark night)

To less than six hundred thousand of friends who visit me every day, want to announce:

I take a break from Vasaloppet until I have time temporarily playing with words on public page like this....or happy spring days ;
