Ett litet oskyldigt.....svar till nån annans text här hihi

Should I...?

Should I...?

Run my fingers...over Jupiter's moons?

I mean two of them

Whisper..."Oooh by the way...while we are at it

let's just stop by to say hello to Venus"

Play hide and seek

under the blanket

and maybe flirt with the stars in your eyes and grab you by the waist, your equator

where I guess

Your earth is very...very...ticklish

If you get homesick

I'll turn you around and show you my planet

with a huge hug

Should I...?

Based on what's been said and done
Should I...?
Lick you up and down your spine
With my lips... come with my mind wide open...
My eyes shut?
Spread your legs in the universe
of hopes and dreams
Should I speak the obvious
Give you a sign...
Show you what I mean
In sign language

Or should I...?

Spare the details
Under the circumstances
Be aware
Be polite
Start with a joke
Seduce you with metaphors
like a poet

Oh wait
....I've already done that part

So tell me....

What should be my next move...?
