

From Ragged to Soigne

This Monday
could be a fun day but I'm scared, say
it'll be okay

this obsession
to always question
you're clinging on my mind just leave it behind

I'm on our way to the stars you can choose to stay discussing scars
it's not who we are

I'm asking you kindly to leave you're begging me to join, feel but it's not the same anymore
from ragged to soigne
