Den brutala ärligheten, och den mörkaste livssynen.

The Pessimism of Society

Can't take back the time which has been spilled

No one's that skilled

Can't forget an individual

That's just fictional

Shouldn't forgive every mistake

Just let someone else feel the ache

Shouldn't really speak your true mind

Just watch the failure of the humankind

Can't be buried by the most beautiful chapel

Only saint's gets to be the core of the apple

Can't have a one-night-stand at the hotel

Cause' whores goes to hell

Can't go to Las Vegas and win a million

Let's just face that dreams are for children

Can't shoot fire from your hands even if you wanted to

Such fantasies only makes you a fool

Can't seek to be as free as the bird

Being that kind of a selfish bastard is just absurd

Can't believe magic really exists

Not even in a true love's kiss
