| Silver Suzy                          |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |

| lives right across the river         |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |
| Little Johnny Jewel                  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |
| won't go there again                 |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |
| And Suzy shouts                      |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |
| from her side of the river:          |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |
| "Okey, that's it then!               |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |
| I've had it with men!"               |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |
|                                      |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |
| She packs her bags                   |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |
| She's gonna move to Stockholm        |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |
| to start a brand new life down there |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |

| that it will never happen            |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |

| she doesn't care                     |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |
|                                      |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |
|                                      |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |
| Suzy is young                        |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |
