from Songs for Nordic nights

When the Lord is coming back

Your judgement is hanging loose

If you think others are like a foolish goose

Striving to fool others lifetime as well

You just sit and treat others in their dwell

No respect for others difference and thought

You just sit and complain on our souls drought

Every day and year Jesus is coming back

To judge us for our humble sins and our lack

He resides in our churches on a cross

We can live and feel a lot of sins get loss

If we have mercy for just waiting been

You have visit a church and our Lord have seen

Don't forget to pray for loved ones of yours

That will open up the sky and heaven many doors

Our symbols reside in belief that he is coming back

And it's nothing to do with white and black!

Humans doesn't have any colors in my mind

Try to be as humble and mercyfull and be kind
