. hm.. det skulle jag vilja veta :)

"Is love a Tool?"

Who or what &hellip;

-We need life

or life needs us, more?

Is loneliness an engine of love?

Sartre is laughing here:

-as I said..

really?

See

across the time of your life

you can see a quiet river

the water of trust

before the storm

yes, over that very river

there is a bridge

to "the heart of the immanent darkness"

O!, do not go there&hellip;

No, no it is not so bad,

U know,

&ldquo;people should always have a goal in life&rdquo;
yes
to be devoted to something.

It gives life the meaning

:)

This autumn

the Sun use to rise as always

But I hear voices of war

somewhere

voices of children who lost parents

angels need to protect them too voices of girls, angry-----

(listen to the audio here to the right..)

some exotic boys do not respect them

enough

sorrow

- Trauma of life?
- Consciousness and our soul?
- Ethics and soul?
- Transcendence and sublimation?

What?

there is hope but &ndash;we must win

Do not give up

Win the race

And fight , fight again and again..

Remember

you're a child of Terra Nova
now
she is traveling alone
remember
in cold, cold space.

Yes, I can see
very evening
the stars are rising
to the darkness of the next night.

And then in the rain
of the night of hibernated music finally
I can see
an open door
into a possible future
only because of hope.

and

I'm waiting and waiting for
all your songs and poetry
will be born

and the Moon
and the Sun
and all these beautiful clouds
in the sky
every morning. :)

Smile &ndash;often&hellip;
