Fairytale

Let the wind guide me

Said the leaf

And flew far away

Let the mountain guide my light

Said the sun and fell over the edge of the world

Let the ground hear me

Said the rain

And went to the river

Let me play for you said the shadow to the child

Let me sit with you and listen

Said the bench to the elder

Let me hold you all in my arms

Said the valley

Let me sing for you from far away

Said the sea

Let me walk with you

Said the road to the wanderer

Let me cover you with dreams

Said the night and lit the stars
