Save me

Save me. You\'ve really gotta save me.

My lifes is going under, like the sky beats up the thunder.

So save me. You\'ve really gotta save me.

All the left pieces falls behind me.

I really dont wanna feeling something

but soon its coming behind you knocking and babies is just crying for nothing.

but no one comes, no one comes.

Blame me, baby you could just blame me.

Whatever you said to me, it tasted like candy.

Im sailing away on a stormy sea.

You tell me that this would be on forever

but now and then was like whenever and i thougt you was clever

Cause you said that love ends never.

Did you loved me? I ask you if you loved me?

Baby, Baby, I say baby...?

What means when you say maybe?
