Meaningless

Black, dark eyes,
A lady in a red dress.
The shadow in the forest,
The light in the sky.
Can you explain the word meaningless?

The long, blond hair,
The lips that taste blood.
An unforgivable thought of mystery,
A forbidden thought of death.
Can you say the word meaningless?

The scars on your arms,
Why did it happen?
The tears in your eyes,
Why didn't you say something?
Can you spell the word meaningless?

Can you explain the fun with hate?
Can you explain the game you play?
Can you explain your happiness with your razorblade?
Can you explain the smile on your face?
I've seen your world turned upside down.
I've seen your mistakes, I've seen you when you went crazy.
All because of me...

Can you understand the word meaningless?
