Who are you?

Did you step aside and watch me slip and fall into the sea?

Did you lock the door in front of me when I searched for comfort and someone to help me heal?

Did you fasten your seatbelt when I smashed into that tree?

I wish not

Did you risk your life to catch my fall?

Did you greet me with tender kisses at the doorstep to your home?

Did you fasten my seatbelt when I smashed into that tree?

I wish

Wishes can make the most unlikely truth a reality.
