En dikt jag skrev i somras

Dont turn around

If you look back and stand still you will feel bad.

But if you close you eyes and remember the past is still the past and you cant change it, all you can do is see life for what it is,

and do whats best of it.

Dont turn around,

bad things happens to everybody.

But it&acute;s a part of who you are.

Dont cry

everything is gone be OK because,

the future maybe are what you are waiting for.

Remember everythings happens for a reson, dont turn around always look forward because the future has more to offer.
